a failure to properly enforce the law. -The School of Acting, located in the Lyceum Theater, New York City, has forwarded the Appear a statement of its newest plans. Its third year opens in October, under a reorganization comprising Mr. F. H. Sargent as director, David Balasco as stage manager and a full corps of dramatic teachers. Students this year are offered public appearances, like those of Wil-son Barrett's Theater, London; daily stage drill, after the manner of the Paris Conservatoire, and education in all the actor's accomplishments. Its management claim that this school is the only institution in America exclusively devoted to training for the professional stage.

To My Friends.

He that is not with me is against me.' I have, since my announcement as a candidate for the magistracy, received considerable encouragement, and numerous promises of support from my friends, all of which I truly appre-ciate. On this "the eve of battle," however, I desire to remind them that their support must be practical. The above caption fully explains the position of affairs, and feeling assured that if my friends rally round me tomorrow my chances for election are excellent, 1 beg for the last time that they go to the polls and cast their vote for WILLIAM B. for it. Clothing is a necessity of life. We have to dress. The laws of civilization demand it. Clothing costs money, and the MISFIT CLOTH-ING PARLORS, No. 262 SECOND STREET, will give you more for your money than you can obtain elsewhere.

Why Misfits Are the Cheapest.

1. BECAUSE you are sure of getting good cloth.

2. BECAUSE tailor garments are always well made. 3. BECAUSE you get the best of clothing for less than half its actual value. 4. BECAUSE, although they are called "MISFITS," you get better fits than you can find among ready-made clothing. 5. BECAUSE you really gain what the tailors lose.

6. BECAUSE you get clothing that was made to bring double what you pay for it.

7. BECAUSE you are always certain of getting full value for your money.
